

Sinclair Broadcasting should not be allowed to force their stations to air the anti-John Kerry pseudo-documentary "Stolen Honor". It is an abuse of the public airwaves to attempt to sway the election by airing this vicious slander days before the presidential election. This is not in the public interest, undermines our democracy, and underscores the need for stronger and better media ownership rules which prevent further media consolidation. If this program is allowed to run I urge you not to renew Sinclair's license. Thanks for your time.

Sincerely,
Vanessa Stephens
